

Ronnie Malley is a multi-instrumentalist musician, composer, sound designer, producer, actor, playwright, educator, and executive director of Intercultural Music Production. He has worked on award-winning theatrical plays, recorded as a musician on over twenty albums, and performs with several music groups from various global musical styles.